SIRARC REPORT NO. 28 -- October 29, 1983

LUNCHEON -- Our 29th regular luncheon was held at Spenger's on October 28 with 82 members present representing 33 branches. XYLs and other guests brought the total attendance up to 157. We were again favored by the presence of State SIR president, Sir J. Bruce Vesey and his charming wife, Jean.

BUSINESS -- Certificates were presented to our new members by our first president and founder, Millard, K6ZRY. If you are entitled to one but were not there, you should find yours enclosed.

A new set of check sheets (7 pages) was made available. When picked up at a luncheon meeting, these cost 50 cents per set or three sets for $1.00. By mail, the cost is two sets for $1.00.

The nominating committee consisting of Charlie, W6BOW (Chm), Bill, W6DVB, Norm, W6SJH, and Harry, W6GWW, presented the following proposed slate of officers:

President, Claude R. MacKay, WB6LMY.
1st Vice-President, Stanley Saniuk, W6PRR.
2nd Vice-President, Charles Enloe, WA6TJJ.
Secretary/Treasurer, Walter B. Jones, WB6PIZ.

There being no nominations from the floor, the above slate was elected by acclamation and installed by SIR State President, Bruce Vesey.

PROGRAM -- Wilson B. Flick gave a slide show concerning the 1915 world's fair in San Francisco. These outstanding pictures were beautifully presented and narrated. This was certainly one of our better programs.
